

> University Diploma in French as a Foreign Language

If you don't speak a lot of French and would like to attain the level necessary to pursue your university studies in France and communicate with ease, this course is for you.

What is the DUFLE?

The DUFLE is a year-long intensive linguistic course spread over 450 hours. The focus is on learning in a French-speaking environment, and helping students work progressively taking into account various aspects of the language.

Objectives

- Acquiring linguistic, communication as well as culture-specific skills in order to facilitate everyday, social, academic and professional life in France.
- Progressing from the B1 to B2 level as per the scale established by the Council of Europe.
- Getting familiar with university departments, for those who'd like to pursue their studies at the UVHC after a year of DUFLE.

Course contents

The DUFLE includes six modules taught by professionals recognized in the domain of FLE:

- Module 1 : Written and spoken communication
- Module 2 : Grammatical aspects of the French language
- Module 3 : Written and spoken argumentation
- Module 4 : Specialized French courses
- Module 5 : Training for the TCF language test
- Module 6 : Civilization

Working method

- The classes revolve around tried and tested teaching methods, using the communicative approach.
- The Centre de Ressources en Langues (Language Resource Centre) proposes various multimedia resources conducive to self-study, at the disposal of students.
- Conversation workshops are organized at the CRL.
- A possible integration is envisaged in certain university courses that students would like to pursue.
